Grant Announcements

In January, 53 Basic Human Needs (BHN) grants were awarded to parishes across the Diocese to address hunger, homelessness, sexual and domestic violence, issues facing immigrants, people impacted by the criminal justice system, and more. A full list is available here. A Program Investment Grant has also been awarded to Holyrood Church, Manhattan, to support a capacity building project at the Washington Heights Choir School. To learn how your parish can apply for funding to support an outreach program or partnership, register for a New Grantseekers' webinar.

Join our Diocese-Wide Day of Service

On Saturday, May 5, Episcopal Charities will host our first-ever Day of Service with projects in NYC as well as Westchester and Dutchess counties. We'll be gardening at St. Ann's in the Bronx and St. Thomas, Amenia Union, packing toiletries at Lifting Up Westchester in White Plains, and preparing a meal at St. Michael's Saturday Kitchen in Manhattan. The event coincides with the expansion of our volunteer program, which matches individuals and teams with outreach opportunities in all regions of the Diocese.

2018 Sustainability Institute Workshops

This spring, Episcopal Charities will host two webinars and one in-person workshop through our Sustainability Institute training program. Topics include the use of social media to benefit outreach, how to make your youth outreach program inclusive of children with sensory, communication, and other learning differences, and volunteer management. Registration is open to any staff or volunteer engaged in parish outreach in the Diocese. Information on our fall workshops is also online.

Episcopal Charities Sunday is Coming!

On Mother's Day, May 13th, many parishes will celebrate Episcopal Charities Sunday to help reduce the impact of hunger in communities across the Diocese. That day, a special offering takes place to help fund the 47 parish-sponsored community kitchens and food pantries that Episcopal Charities helps to fund. Other parishes may celebrate on a different date. We thank you in advance for your generous support!

A Spring Appeal from our Bishops

Bishop Dietsche, Bishop Shin, and Bishop Glasspool invite you to join them in supporting programs that assist children and teens in need. 100% of your gift will be distributed directly to programs through Episcopal Charities' Youth Opportunity Grants.
